DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgements

1. The examiner for this application has changed. Please indicate Examiner Rajesh Khattar as the examiner of record in all future correspondences.
2. Applicant's supplemental amendment dated Jan. 25, 2007 has been fully acknowledged. Claims 1-3, 5-7 and 10 have been amended. Claims 12-14 have been added. Claims 1-14 are pending for consideration.
3. Examiner has reviewed the interview summary dated Nov. 29, 2006. The principal argument for the interview was that Hayman does not disclose selectively routing information and no agreement was reached. Examiner will address this issue in response to arguments filed on Jan. 25, 2007.

Response to Amendment

4. Applicant's arguments filed on Jan. 25, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

With respect to the rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103, Applicant asserts "order information may be selectively routed to one of a plurality of workers". Examiner respectfully disagrees.

Examiner notes that Hayman teaches that the order information may be selectively routed to one of a plurality of workers (col. 3, lines 40-65). For example, the order 1 is taken/placed by Waiter A and is selectively routed to plurality of workers (in this case Work Sta. X, Y and Z).

Applicant further states that "Hayman does not disclose selectively routing information". Examiner respectfully disagrees.

Examiner notes that Hayman does disclose selectively routing information (col. 3, lines 40-65). For example, when the order 1 was taken/entered by Waiter A, item A gets routed to Work Sta. X, item B gets routed to Work Sta. Y and item C gets routed to Work Sta. Z. Therefore, the rejection is proper.

Dependent claims 12-14 are also rejected on the same ground.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
